

National Championship Support

The award winning MWA Women's program is committed to supporting women/girls in all disciplines in WA and to also encourage our women/ girls to progress to compete at a national level in their chosen discipline. One of our long term goals is to grow the amount of support available to WA women from sponsorship and fundraising events and distribute that to eligible competitors. The MWA Women's committee would like to introduce our National Championship Support program with limited amount of funds available to eligible competitors in 2016.

Eligible applicants will be sponsored with $100 per rider once a year from the MWA Women's committee which is to be used for expenses to compete in a women's /girls national championship.

Eligibility:

- Prior demonstrated commitment/participation in State championships in own discipline
- Proof of entry into nominated event
- Willing to provide media article regarding event participation and publicly support the MWA women's committee
- Willing to repay funds if unable to attend/participate in the event
